LOCAL NEWS.

There will be preaching in the Munger street school house by Rev. C. F. Noble Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

A fish and oyster market has been opened in the middle store of the Dyer block by Messrs. Paul Cornell and George Kidder.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church will give a sociable at the home of the pastor, Rev. T. G. Lyons, on Wednesday evening next.

Mr. C. N. Brooks of Munger street has left at this office some extraordinary parsnips. One of them measures three feet and one inch in length.

Eighty persons were confirmed at St. Mary's church on Sunday last by Rt. Rev. J. S. Michaud of Burlington, coadjutor bishop of the diocese.

The freight business on this division of the Central Vermont is heavy these days, long trains passing through one way or the other every few minutes.

The Hawthorne club held its third meeting of the season on Tuesday evening at Prof. Eaton's. The next will be at Prof. McGilton's on Court street.

Two Burlington wheelmen who came to Middlebury on their machines, Saturday, made the return trip of 39 miles, by way of Bristol and Hinesburgh, on Sunday in three hours.

Branches of raspberry bushes bearing blossoms, unripe and ripe fruit have been brought to this office by Messrs. Wm. Duncan and H. T. Warner. They were picked but a few days ago.

James McMahon, 76 years of age, had the misfortune to fall from a wagon on Saturday and break his collar bone. The accident was caused by the horses attached to the wagon starting up unexpectedly.

The superintendent of the gang of men engaged in putting up the railroad bridge over the river says he will have trains crossing it before the end of this month. The main girders are in and the trusses are nearly up.

A double team owned by W. F. Hammond became frightened while standing in front of Bond Bros.' store on Wednesday and ran southward, finally bringing up in the McDonald woods, a mile from the village. No great harm was done.

The suit of Peter Counter vs. Jerry Morgan, for $200 damages for assault, was tried before Justice McLeod a few days since. Mr. Tupper appeared for the plaintiff and Judge Slade for the defendant. The court decided for the defendant.

The concert at the town hall on Wednesday evening by the Phila May company was fairly well attended. It was an excellent entertainment. The proceeds, however, were not sufficient to leave a profit for the high school, under whose auspices the concert was given.

A parlor meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held at Mrs. H. H. Bryant's on Wednesday evening, November 15, to which all are cordially invited. The business meeting will be held at 3 p. m., at which all members are earnestly requested to be present promptly at the hour.

The graded school closed for the week on Wednesday afternoon in order that the teachers might attend the annual meeting of the State Teachers' association in Rutland, which began yesterday. All of them went down on the morning train yesterday to remain till the close of the meeting.

Dr. Bernard Bigsby, an English author, who is traveling in the States, gave a very interesting talk at the college chapel on Wednesday afternoon last, taking for his subject the great English schools of Winchester and Rugby. A considerable number of townspeople heard his lecture.

Letters with the following addresses are at the post-office unclaimed: Eason Burns, Normandin, Cordouner, O. C. Dairymple, Will Holden, Alfred Jaquette, George J. Miller, D. J. Ryan, Jackson Stevens, L. B. Wickwire, Mrs. Betsy Benigman, Mrs. M. M. French, Mrs. Sorell Taylor, Mrs. Addie Shack-ett.

The prices of all sorts of produce keep up well. Butter of the best quality is worth 24 cents a pound and fresh eggs sell for 25 cents a dozen. Apples, of which over 5000 barrels have been handled by Mr. A. K. Carr, the local buyer, are selling at $2.75 a barrel, and potatoes are in good demand at 45 cents a bushel.

A novel and amusing entertainment will be given in the town hall on the evening of Friday, the 17th inst., under the auspices of the young people's society of the Congregational church. There will be tableaux of a new kind, music, and last but not least, refreshments. The admission will be but 35 cents, and this will pay for the refreshments for one.

The damages occasioned to the Chapman block a few weeks since by fire and water have been partially repaired, so that Mrs. Campbell was able to resume possession on Wednesday of her former rooms in the second story. The repair of the main floor will be deferred until January, when Messrs. Chapman & Co. will have reduced their clothing stock and can remove it more easily than at present.

The newly-organized foot-ball team of the college went to Northfield on Saturday last to play its first public game with the team of Northfield university. It resulted in a score of 34 to 0 in favor of Northfield. While beaten, the home team has the satisfaction of knowing that it played well, its brief practice considered. Prof. James was the referee. A return game will be played here on the 18th inst.

Camp A. S. Tracy, Sons of Veterans, celebrated the anniversary of its organization by a camp-fire and dance at the town hall on Tuesday evening. There was a large attendance on both events and an enjoyable time was had. Among those present was Mr. Frank P. Merrill of Boston, at one time the head of the Sons of Veterans in the United States. The local orchestra provided the music and the Ladies' Aid society the supper.

All the stone needed to finish up the stone bridge is on the way here. There are to be belt lines of marble just above the arches on each side of the structure, and the stone battlements will be surmounted by a heavy marble cap-stone, rock-faced and otherwise finished to correspond with the rest of the stone-work. The arches are all done and the work of filling in for the roadway can be begun very soon.

Mr. W. M. Chapman on Saturday shipped from this station to his home in Romeo, Mich., 14 ewes from the flock of his father, the late Albert Chapman; also the yearling stallion Twin Gillig, bred by his brother, Mr. C. A. Chapman of Ferrisburgh. The sheep carry the blood of the best flocks in Vermont. Twin Gillig is by Gillig, and his dam is Main Branch, by Big Tree. He is a full brother of Jack Brooks, that last summer won the first futurity stake offered by the Vermont Horse Breeders' association.

By the will of the late Charles J. Starbuck, whose death is elsewhere announced, the West Cemetery association gets a legacy of $5000. The exact terms of the bequest are not stated, but it was probably Mr. Starr's desire that the money be invested and the income used for the maintenance of the grounds. It is a private corporation, and it has been in operation so long that the families of many of those buried there have become almost if not quite extinct; in consequence of this fact it has been of late years almost impossible for the association to collect assessments upon the lots sufficient to keep up the grounds, so that Mr. Starr's legacy is most acceptable. Indeed, unless such provision had been made by some one, in a few years more the association would have had no income at all.

Main street at the south end of the bridge is in rather mixed shape. Trustee H. W. Hammond and a force of men are laying walls on either side to retain the filling material that is to go in for raising the grade of the street. It has been necessary to dig down to the foundations of the buildings and start these walls there in order to avoid the danger of harming the foundations. Mr. Palmer has the screws all under Union block and has made some headway in raising the north end of it, which had fallen eight inches below the level of the rest of the structure owing to a defective foundation. Entrance to the stores in the block is effected by way of temporary bridges. The owners of the Dyer block and the committee appointed by the village to award damages to those whose buildings were effected by the change of grade have had several conferences, but have reached no agreement as to the amount of damages to be paid. The owners and Mr. Palmer are figuring on the cost of raising the block, so that the former may know what to calculate upon.

RACING WITH WOLVES.

Many a thrilling tale has been told by travelers of a race with wolves across the frozen steppes of Russia. Sometimes only the picked bones of the hapless traveler are found to tell the tale. In our own country thousands are engaged in a life-and-death race against the wolf consumption. The best weapon with which to fight the foe is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This renowned remedy has cured myriads of cases when all other medicines and doctors have failed. It is the greatest blood purifier and restorer of strength known to the world. For all forms of scrofulous affections (and consumption is one of them) it is unequalled as a remedy.
